

MAJOR GENERAL – Scene 1

- KING We object to Major-Generals as fathers-in-law. But we waive that point. We do not press it. We look over it.
- GENERAL (aside) Hah! an idea! (aloud) And do you mean to say that you would deliberately rob me of these, the sole remaining props of my old age, and leave me to go through the remainder of my life unfriended, unprotected, and alone?
- KING Well, yes, that's the idea.
- GENERAL Tell me, have you ever known what it is to be an orphan?
- PIRATES (disgusted) Oh, dash it all!
- KING Here we are again!
- GENERAL I ask you, have you ever known what it is to be an orphan?
- KING Often!
- GENERAL Yes, orphan. Have you ever known what it is to be one?
- KING I say, often.
- PIRATES (disgusted) Often, often, often. (Turning away)
- GENERAL I don't think we quite understand one another. I ask you, have you ever known what it is to be an orphan, and you say "orphan". As I understand you, you are merely repeating the word "orphan" to show that you understand me.
- KING I didn't repeat the word often.
- GENERAL Pardon me, you did indeed.
- KING I only repeated it once.
- GENERAL True, but you repeated it.
- KING But not often.
- GENERAL Stop! I think I see where we are getting confused. When you said "orphan", did you mean "orphan" – a person who has lost his parents, or "often", frequently?
- KING Ah! I beg pardon – I see what you mean – frequently.
- GENERAL Ah! you said "often", frequently.
- KING No, only once.
- GENERAL (irritated) Exactly – you said "often", frequently, only once.

MAJOR GENERAL – Scene 2

- FREDERIC I will try, dear Mabel. But why does he sit, night after night, in this draughty old ruin?
- GENERAL Why do I sit here? To escape from the pirates' clutches, I described myself as an orphan; and, heaven help me, I am no orphan! I come here to humble myself before the tombs of my ancestors, and to implore their pardon for having brought dishonour on the family escutcheon.
- FREDERIC But you forget, sir, you only bought the property a year ago, and the stucco on your baronial castle is scarcely dry.
- GENERAL Frederic, in this chapel are ancestors: you cannot deny that. With the estate, I bought the chapel and its contents. I don't know whose ancestors they were, but I know whose ancestors they are, and I shudder to think that their descendant by purchase (if I may so describe myself) should have brought disgrace upon what, I have no doubt, was an unstained escutcheon.
- FREDERIC Be comforted. Had you not acted as you did, these reckless men would assuredly have called in the nearest clergyman, and have married your large family on the spot.
- GENERAL I thank you for your proffered solace, but it is unavailing. I assure you, Frederic, that such is the anguish and remorse I feel at the abominable falsehood by which I escaped these easily deluded pirates, that I would go to their simple-minded chief this very night and confess all, did I not fear that the consequences would be most disastrous to myself. At what time does your expedition march against these scoundrels?
- FREDERIC At eleven, and before midnight I hope to have atoned for my involuntary association with the pestilent scourges by sweeping them from the face of the earth – and then, dear Mabel, you will be mine!
- GENERAL Are your devoted followers at hand?
- FREDERIC They are, they only wait my orders.
- Music No. 2. RECITATIVE (Major-General & Frederic)
"Then, Frederic, let your escort lion hearted"
- GENERAL Then, Frederic, let your escort lion-hearted
Be summoned to receive a General's blessing,
Ere they depart upon their dread adventure.
- FREDERIC Dear, sir, they come.
